

PEACE for Families is pleased to announce our
Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault
Crisis Intervention Training

Training will cover the Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault curriculums mandated by the Office of Emergency Services. The 64 hour training is offered to participants interested in volunteering for our agency. This training is mandatory for those wishing to have client contact.

- Crisis Line
- Victim Advocacy
- Crisis Counseling/Intervention
- Group Facilitator
- SART (Sexual Assault Response Team)
- Community referrals
- Outreach Program

Candidates must first complete a volunteer application and an interview screening process before being accepted into the training. Volunteers are asked to make a one-year commitment to the agency. Class will meet Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 4:00pm-8:00pm and Saturdays from 8:00am-4:00pm, January 24 – February 18, 2012. The location is Sierra College, Rocklin Campus, Fireside Room, J-2.

For more information on the training and/or volunteer opportunities, please contact:

Heather Bullis-Cruz
Education and Training Coordinator
PEACE for Families

Please contact by January , 2012 to reserve a space!
Phone # 530-823-6224 or hbullis-cruz@peaceforfamilies.org